

philadelphia neshoba county

small town | big heart

A charming town square filled with delightful boutiques and upscale dining, leafy green parks that beckon you in, and a tradition of hospitality, warmth, and welcome.

Find out what awaits you in our little corner of the world!

You'll find something for every taste – and more importantly, you'll find a generous welcome from a small town with a big heart!

Philadelphia and Neshoba County have a history filled with the blues and country music, gracious architecture, and a vibrant Native American culture. Established in 1833, Neshoba County boasts natural beauty, plenty of recreation, and a fair to end all fairs. In 1903 Philadelphia was aptly named for the City of Brotherly Love, and continues to welcome visitors with true Southern hospitality.

While you're here, take a drive through our lovely historic neighborhoods and marvel at the enchanting homes. Stroll through one of our grassy parks, or along a lovely lakeshore. Enjoy breakfast, lunch, or dinner at one of our acclaimed hometown restaurants, which feature delicious local specialties. Our arts and entertainment events offer a chance to relax, have fun, and appreciate the many talents of our wonderful region.

*In downtown Philadelphia
the town square combines small town charm with uptown, chic boutiques*

Explore on your own

Find these incredible sites, designated by historic markers:

Neshoba County Fair

Neshoba County Fairgrounds

Grierson's Raid 1863

Old Neshoba County Jail

Philadelphia Historic District

Adam Monroe Byrd

Booker T. Washington School

Freedom Summer Murders

Holy Cross Catholic Church

Otis Rush (Mississippi Blues Trail)

Marty Stuart

(Mississippi Country Music Trail)

Bob Ferguson

(Mississippi Country Music Trail)

Marty Gamblin

(Mississippi Country Music Trail)

A Rich History

Historic Homes Tour

Spend an hour or two soaking up the glorious architecture of Philadelphia's well-preserved historic district on Poplar and Holland Avenues.

African American Heritage Driving Tour

Discover the places where the struggle for freedom took place throughout Philadelphia and Neshoba County.

Philadelphia-Neshoba County Historical Museum

Explore the history of the Neshoba County Fair, the Civil War, and renowned local musicians.

Taste Delights

Ashley's Restaurant

City Limits

Crismont Creations

La Concinita

Ole Mexico

Ronnie's Steak and Grill

Taste and See

The Porterhouse

Ye Old Drug Store and Deli

Shopping Highlights

Backroad Boutique & Monograms

Bobby's Jewelry

Born Again Bargains

Byars Furniture

City Jewelry

Dixie's Gypsy Boutique

Faye's

Jess 2 Gorgeous & Adorable

Jerome Tank Season 2 Season

Jewelry Just 4 Fun

Kademi

MG & Company

Neshoba County Co-op

Square Peg Mini Mall

Steve's on the Square

Stitched Boutique

Stribling Drug Store

Southern Avenue Boutique

Tanya's Thread's and Monogramming

Teens, Tots and In-betweens

The Clothesline

Williams Brothers General Store

A Charming Town Square

In the heart of Philadelphia is a true gem: a quaint town square combining small-town charm with uptown style.

Browse the curated selection of handcrafted items from local artisans in our delightful boutiques.

Stroll through the high-end clothing stores to find the quality merchandise you love! Luxury décor, special furnishings, and gifts – you'll find it all in Philadelphia's downtown square.

And when you finish shopping, stop into a café for ice cream, gourmet coffee, or a homemade baked treat.

For lunch or dinner, the square has something to tempt every appetite, from family-friendly eateries to upscale fine dining, featuring authentic local specialties. That's not all - don't miss the shopping opportunities just outside of downtown.

Neshoba County Coliseum

Spacious, comfortable, and welcoming, the Neshoba County Coliseum is the center of activities ranging from rodeos to graduations, business conferences to live concerts, sporting events to family reunions. With seating for up to 5,000, full service concession facilities, a large portable stage, a meeting room with full kitchen, and much more, the state-of-the-art, multi-purpose coliseum is conveniently located on Highway 15, just north of Philadelphia.

A Place to Play

Philadelphia's parks provide indoor and outdoor recreation in beautiful surroundings!

Northside Park is a busy hive of sports activities, walking trails, and picnics!

Burnside Park is 115 acres of beauty along Burnside Lake.

Westside Park is home to the Westside Community Center.

Neshoba County Lake

Depot Family Fun Center

Located in Choctaw, MS, Pearl River Resort is a great getaway, with live entertainment, an upscale casino, and luxurious accommodations! The award-winning Dancing Rabbit Golf Club is here for golfers, and children (plus most adults!) love the Geyser Falls Water Theme Park.

The Fair City

With two of the area's biggest attractions – the Neshoba County Fair and the Choctaw Indian Fair – it's no wonder Philadelphia is known as the Fair City! We invite you to come to these two world-famous events, and discover a few more:

Choctaw Indian Fair

Located on the centuries-old homeland of the Choctaw, the fair offers a rich exploration of the tribe's vibrant culture with dancing, arts and crafts and traditional cuisine.

Neshoba County Fair

Best known as Mississippi's Giant House Party, this is the nation's largest campground fair! It's eight days of live music, horse racing, arts and crafts, livestock competition, political speeches, and much more.

Ham Jam Arts Festival

Get a taste of our outstanding local talent and specialties, from artisans to food to entertainment at this weekend of fun.

The Depot

During your visit to our little corner of the world, stop by The Depot Welcome Center and find out more about the activities and events that await you in Philadelphia.

Located in Downtown Philadelphia
256 W. Beacon Street
Philadelphia, MS 39350
601.656.1000

PHILADELPHIA, MISSISSIPPI
www.neshoba.org