EOP Ministry: Learn how you can help

The Women's Ministry is beginning an important partnership with the Early Education Program (EEP). The 65 ladies on staff work so hard and care for children so tenderly! We want to support them as they go about caring for these little ones. Our plans are in the early stages, but we will definitely have a prayer group just for them.

We will also provide treats from time to time. Monday, Feb. 20 is an in-service day in Seabrook Hall. We will provide coffee, juice & breakfast items. Abby Pates will lead them in worship to set the tone for a special day.

Help wanted: Find a place to serve

Volunteer Coordinator(s): Working closely with Laura Greenwell & the Women's Ministry Council, coordinate volunteers for all Women's Ministry events for 2017.

Qualifications: Organizational skills, a heart for serving & love for the Lord; more than one person can take this on, so if you & a friend (or two) are interested, let us know. We are open to ideas about how this job will work.

Qualifications: A heart for younger women (& you don't have to be years older - just a little bit ahead in the game of life; sometimes 5 -10 years of experience make all the difference!), a bit of experience, some extra time & love for the Lord

Data Entry Clerk: Enter church attendance each week. It takes about 2-4 hours a week, & you need to be able to commit to three months. You can work from home or we can set you up at church.
